

For a donation of at least $25.00, the library will order an appropriate book. A bookplate, noting your name and the name of the remembered person or event will be placed on the inside front cover of the book. An acknowledgment will be mailed to anyone you designate. Gifts less than $25.00 will be added to the library book fund and acknowledged by mail to those you designate.

The library welcomes gifts of cash, stocks, bonds, or real estate. A discussion between the donor and the library director will help determine the best use of the gift, subject to the approval of the Library Board of Trustees.

GIVING TO THE LIBRARY

Sheppard Memorial Library
Greenville, North Carolina
www.sheppardlibrary.org

A gift to the Sheppard Memorial Library is a gift to your community.

Your gift can serve as a TRIBUTE to mark a birthday, anniversary, or special occasion; to salute a teacher, colleague, or public servant; or to thank someone special in your life.

Your gift can serve as a MEMORIAL to honor the life of someone special.

Your gift can COMMEMORATE a special achievement, milestone, or effort.

A gift to the Sheppard Memorial Library helps to enrich the lives of your community for years to come. Whether designated for an addition to the collection, to support a library program or service, or to improve facilities, gifts enable library staff to support its mission.

The Sheppard Memorial Library system promotes the joys of reading, life-long learning, creativity, and economic growth. It collects and maintains diverse, comprehensive knowledge resources which nourish enlightenment, critical thinking, literacy, and understanding throughout the region.

In an era of constant change, Sheppard Memorial Library offers stability and reliability to its community.

The library's primary mission is to provide high-interest material in a variety of formats and locations thereby allowing access and use of its collections and resources by as many individuals as possible.

The library supports both formal and informal education endeavors of persons in the community. It particularly supports reading and learning for preschool children and assisting students in meeting objectives established during formal courses of study.

The library aggressively seeks to add to the knowledge infrastructure of its service area in order to support the vitality of the knowledge-based economy. In this way, and by providing a complete array of first-rate job-seeking tools and assistance, the library contributes to the economic development of individuals and of the community.

The library's staff is composed of highly effective information specialists who assist library users in locating authoritative, timely, nonbiased information among the myriad of possible sources. They aid persons in finding answers to everyday problems as well as issues that move beyond facts and data to knowledge and enlightenment.

Recognizing the need to remain current with the times, Sheppard Memorial Library regularly reviews its mission to ensure that the library system is providing maximum benefit to its service area.
